

Literacy Fair

Kuhio Elementary School

November 7, 2015

Purpose: Promote literacy to our students, their families, and the community.

Goals:

1. Increase access to resources for parents to be better teachers within the homes.
2. Nurture the love of reading in children.
3. Equip homes with books.
4. Establish a culture of reading within the homes.

BOOK FAIR

ACTIVITIES

Free haircuts if boys read a book aloud during the cut.

Activity books

Vision testing

Brain Dance

Make bookmarks

Word and reading games

READ ALOUDS

STUDENT PERFORMANCES

School Chorus

Aesop Fable Plays

2015 Participants

- Aesop Fable Plays by students
- The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Missionaries
- The Hawaii Branch of the International Dyslexia Association (HIDA)
- Hilton Waikiki Beach
- Kapahulu Moiliili Lions Club
- KSCA-PTA
- Kuhio Elementary's Earth Squad
- Kuhio Student Chorus
- McCully-Moiliili Library
- Read Aloud America
- Representative Scott Nishimoto
- Rotary Club of Waikiki
- Smarty Dance
- UH LIS Student Organizations
- Usborne Books & More Book Fair
- Wondering Reader, Sandra Taga

Contact Information: Ruth Pukahi

Library & Information Science Master's Candidate * ruthp@hawaii.edu
Kuhio Elementary School PTT Librarian * ruth_pukahi@notes.k12.hi.us